

Hawaii reporter -

I asked the state GOP chairwoman about your campaign. She sent me this after seeing some of the fliers. Do you have a response?

"He is not a Republican. He has been expelled by the Hawaii Republican Party. The Hawaii Republican Party values the rich diversity of our great state. He is not a Republican, but Hawaii has a state-run primary system in which the party cannot stop a person from falsely claiming to be a Republican from seeking nomination in a public primary election and representing outrageous and disgusting views and opinions that in no way, shape or form represent or express the views of Hawaii Republicans."

Can the Hawaii GOP chairwomen explain why at the Hawaii Republican Conference the speakers said Israel more times than America? Does the Hawaii GOP chairwomen know of the Naturalization act of 1790 or the National Origins act of 1924? Does she know what the Hart-Celler immigration act of 1965? Does she know that Lincoln wanted to send the blacks back to Africa and FDR wanted to keep the Jews out? What are the Hawaii Republican Party values, where did they get these values and is there any evidence of acting on these values and not just having them as talking points, is there any evidence of the Hawaii Republican Party not even trying to talk about it's so called values and cucking completely to Israel? Does she have an official statement about one article in the Jewish National Review was saying that the Israeli has the right to use deadly force to defend it's border and in the next month the next headline by the same writer now is the time to end family separation let's open our borders – Can the Hawaii GOP chairwomen make a statement on each point listed her or does she depend on a alien power to cover up the cause and affect of the christ-insanity world view? I bet she has absolutely nothing to say about 35,000 White women raped a year by black males. If you look at the violence all over the Western world hundreds of thousands of White people are victim of non-white violence, intimidation, assault even murder and rape from Britain to Germany to France to Italy to Canada to America. Because we have a alien control over our media, that hates us and wants to destroy us. I bet she has absolutely nothing to say about Hawaiians being almost completed genocide by christ-insanity. The Hawaii GOP chairwomen condones all of this because she's a cuck-serative. Who are these trusted flaggers that get the last say on who gets freedom of speech and who doesn't? The Southern Poverty Law Center led by Richard Cohen the anti-defamation league led by Jonathan Greenblatt and the European no hate speech movement whose core is composed of the European Union of Jewish students the aforementioned groups are all pro-Israel often to the point of fanaticism but work around the clock to shut down any nationalist or even mild dissident sentiment in the West. Contact Lorraine Shin, BJPenn's mother and East Hawaii GOP chair, and ask her if she wants Hawaii for the Hawaiians. I mentioned I wanted Hawaii for the Hawaiians and her eyes and face lite up and next thing I know I was suggested to run for office. Anyone who wants Hawaii for the Hawaiians is a National Socialist, Nazi. Every Jewish organization from the Southern Poverty Law Center, anti-defamation league, world Jewish Congress, American Jewish Committee, Wiesenthal Center, embodies a single party line violence racial supremacy for Israel and cosmopolitan open borders liberalism for White countries. Is the Hawaii Republican Party Western the onus is on my opponents to prove it and apparently they don't want to.

HIRA, Hawaii Republican action, has more follows on zogbook than the official Hawaii Republican page. Can you contact HIRA and see what actions the Hawaii Republican Party has taken against them?

“These people want you broke, dead – your kids raped and brainwashed. And they think it's funny”

“Everything we admire on this Earth today—science and art, technology and invention—is solely the creative product of a few peoples, and perhaps originally, of one race. On them depends the existence of this entire culture. If they perish, the beauty of this Earth will sink into the grave with them. “

From the Republican Party of Hawaii Preamble passed out at the Hawaii Republican Conference pg3, section Immigration

“The Republican Party of Hawai'i embraces the compassionate rescue of refugees and recognizes that immigrants enrich our country. We also support existing immigration laws and proposed reforms that concurrently address the needs of national security.”

What does the Hawaii GOP chair say for the complete lack of compassion for White South African Farmers? This is evidence that the Hawaii Republican Party is lead and managed by frauds who are only concerned about their careers and cucking to Israel. The Documentary FARMLANDS (2018) by Lauren Southern.

There is evidence that the Republican Party of Hawai'i does not embrace the compassionate rescue of refugees but this is a value Russia acts upon.

Republican Party of Hawaii Preamble pg4 Agriculture

“The Republican Party of Hawai'i believes agriculture in Hawai'i has a great future and it should be nurtured by the state in terms of mentoring, market development, invasive species/pest control, and, food and pesticide safety training. Sufficient long-term leases of state lands are allotted sustainable water resources, upgraded with irrigation and road access and make available to farmers. We encourage the return of farming programs to public high schools.”

“All the human culture, all the results of art, science and technology which are seen before us today, are almost exclusively the creative product of the Aryan.” 1:11 -Hitler

“Fire ants have spread to every area of the world they can live. Ants are displacing whole human populations -- governments, science and nations are losing whole territories in a fight against an ant. An ant that farms aphids for sugar water. An ant that is a good farmer because it protects what it farms. (((humanity/globalism))) is losing territory to ants.” - Bryan Feste

Republican Party of Hawaii Preamble pg 5 Postamble

“The Republican Party of Hawaii recognizes the truth: government is meant to serve the people. As such government is charged with the responsibility to craft long-term solutions rather than short-term fixes. We pledge to hold our government responsible for securing the safety for our 'ohanas, for expanding our economy, and for promoting fairness and justice for every citizen of Hawai'i.”

“The Jewish doctrine of Marxism rejects the aristocratic principle of Nature and replaces the eternal privilege of power and strength with the mass of numbers and their dead weight. Thus it denies personal worth, contests the significance of folk and race, and thereby withdraws from mankind premise for its existence and culture. As a foundation of the universe, it would lead to the end of any order intellectually conceivable to man. . . .If, with the help of his Marxist creed, the Jew is victorious over the peoples of the world, his crown will be the funeral wreath of mankind and this planet will—as it once did for millions of years—move through the ether devoid of men.” I:2 - Hitler

Aloha, members of the HRP Do-Nothing Committee:

With reports of acute Stockholm Syndrome still affecting State Committee members who continue to believe all is well in the Hawaii GOP, HIRA wanted to make sure you received our latest, fully-documented report about Ostrov's numerous broken promises. These are no minor matters. Hundreds of thousands of Hawaii residents will be watching TV screens on the evening of the General Election (as well as refreshing their computer browsers and pushing their smart phones to the edge) to keep up with the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and FINAL printouts of balloting results from the State Elections Office. WHY should you needlessly endure the suspense of that evening when professionals like you ought to already know that Democrats are on track to wipe the floor with the unprepared HRP (or is it RPH? Ask Blackburn and Grimmer) due to various combinations of nonfeasance, misfeasance and malfeasance? Suspense on Election Night should be reserved exclusively for those who reasonably believe they've done ALL THEY POSSIBLY CAN to win elections. Hey, let's not kid ourselves anymore. Amateur hour reigns at 725 Kapiolani Blvd. Here is what I ask. Beg your captors from the Oahu League to untie your hands and your blindfolds long enough to read the truth below. And never confuse smiling in the face of adversity with delusional refusal to face facts. 20 months gone since 2016. Just 4 months left. This is what happens when incompetent liberals are allowed to run the party, year after year, decade after decade. Finally, please know that HIRA does not want your captors to beat you should they discover you to be infidels. Be sure to tell them you reject the facts and conclusions in the newsletter below and that you believe Ostrov, Blackburn, Tatibouet and their cronies will pull off a stunning and glorious miracle on November 6th. Make sure you repeat the phrase, "As Allah is my witness, the party has done absolutely everything possible to help its candidates to win in 2018. Every member of Shirlene's slate did their job according to the rules. Victory will be ours. The streets will flow with the blood of the non-believers." Then put your blindfolds back on and act like true believers for the next four months. Otherwise, you might be beaten or worse. Worse means that the limited party rule used exclusively to regulate caucus organizing by state legislators will be used to tear up your membership card. Stockholm Syndrome is curable. Just ask Patty Hearst!

Your pal,

ERIC RYAN

Subject: Hawaii GOP in Trouble: The Many Broken Promises of Shirlene Ostrov

View this email in your browser

Aloha, Republicans:

During a cringe-inducing interview this past Friday on Rick Hamada's radio show on KHVH 830 AM, current GOP state chair Shirlene "Do Nothing" Ostrov actually described herself on the air as a "military commander" and proclaimed boldly that "I'm looking at campaigns to win the war" against Democrats.

[Pause reading here to allow yourself a full minute of laughter.]

With only four short months until early balloting begins in the 2018 General Election, there's a very real chance that folks are so used to watching Hawaii's Republican Party blow election after election that RINO Ostrov's failed chairmanship is not any more shocking than Fritz Rohlfing's or Pat Saiki's or David Chang's. Likewise, the liberal voting record of RINO minority leader Andria "Driver's Licenses for Illegal Aliens" Tupola might not be any more shocking than her RINO party leader predecessors Beth "I've always been a Democrat" Fukumoto-Chang, Aaron "Ling" Johanson, and Gene "Obamacare" Ward. We've all just gotten used to this toxic mix of incompetence and liberalism and losing.

While many former supporters of Shirlene Ostrov have begun parting company with the puppet chair who was plucked from obscurity by Pat Saiki and the Lingle Rail-Tax Deniers at the Oahu League of RINO Women (also turncoat Djou's biggest donors), Ostrov's remaining supporters appear to have been overcome with an acute form of Stockholm Syndrome which paralyzes the sections of the brain where memory and logic are centered.

Since Day One, Ostrov's faux 'military campaign' at the state party has been made up of very specific promises -- promises Ostrov made when she ran for the post of state chair 15 months ago. Today's HIRA newsletter revisits Ostrov's explicit promises so that the electoral disaster awaiting the Hawaii GOP in a few weeks will make perfect sense to even the most brainwashed Patty Hearst types down at the Oahu League. First, however, we start with Ostrov's recent multiple assurances that all is great at the state party . . . so great, in fact, that 2018 will be "historic".

 PROMISE #1: On 19 March 2018, Ostrov issued a press release in the wake of Charles Djou's resignation from the Hawaii GOP with an unmistakable pledge that, "Our new leadership team is moving steadily forward with a bold and ambitious agenda and are poised to make historic gains in the 2018 elections." Then again, as recently as last month at the state party convention in Kaneohe, Ostrov promised Republicans and the news media alike that the Hawaii GOP "would make HISTORIC GAINS gains this election cycle". Historic gains. Well, on last Friday's Hamada radio show, Ostrov explained that her new vice chair for candidate recruitment is former 90's party chair Jane Tatibouet, whom Ostrov erroneously credited for increasing the ranks of elected Republicans at the State Capitol by a whopping 17 new members of the legislature (a rise from 4 to 21). Sadly, the reality is that the increase was merely from 7 to 12 (an increase of 5). But, hey, what's a little resume padding? Still, let's agree to call an increase of 5 "historic". And let's call breaking even or even losing seats when the issues are on our side as "disastrous". But the reason Ostrov's promise of "historic gains" can't and won't be kept is because the rest of her promises made 16 months ago were just buzz words selected to fool gullible convention delegates who actually WANTED those very things to be delivered.

 PROMISE #2: Education, outreach, persuasion, blah, blah, blah . . .

From Ostrov's campaign website: <https://www.shirleneostrov.net/statement-of-candidacy>

The Verdict? -- Broken. Sorry, just ask voters anywhere. At the grocery store, just ask the people in front of you or behind you if they know any reasons that they should vote R instead of D in 2018. Simply no case has been made. The entire burden has been put (as usual) on the shoulders of our underfunded, undersupported, late-starting candidates. There's been no education of voters, no persuasion, no outreach, and no 'stepping on the gas to accelerate'. Nothing but silence. Ostrov and her slate of running mates completely failed to make the case for change to Hawaii voters. Was she hoping that Democrats would publicly blame themselves for everything wrong? Did she think Democrats would make the case to vote Republican? Think again.

 PROMISE #3: Independent Audit

The Verdict? -- Broken. Maybe "first order of business" means something different to Ostrov than everyone else walking the planet. But the "very short-term completion date" for her "independent analysis" has slipped now into the 13th month of her tenure. Her claim of "transparency at all levels of leadership" was as flimsy as her empty commitment to spreading the word about GOP solutions and reforms to voters. Disingenuously, she claims to "have no personal or private agenda", yet fails to note that she serves simultaneously as state chair for the Hawaii GOP and vice-president for the Oahu League of RINO Women; a liberal Republican auxiliary which has controlled the Hawaii GOP (and a half-ownership share of the party's Kapiolani headquarters) for decades. Democrats won't take our call for an audit of HART seriously when the head of the Hawaii GOP fails to deliver to its own members the audit of the party she promised on Day One.

 PROMISE #4: Party Platform Free of Manipulation

The Verdict? -- Broken. Ostrov deliberately manipulated the outcome of the platform process to a degree which makes her manipulative predecessors seem innocent by comparison. On the eve of the state convention last month, Ostrov shredded the final work product of the statewide platform committee, applied undue influence by sequestering herself with Andria Tupola's running mate (from the state chair race in 2017) behind closed doors, rewrote the platform (cutting out pages and pages of approved planks), re-convened a handful of members of the platform committee to obtain an illusory 're-approval' of her manipulated platform, and then didn't even allow discussion of the platform by convention delegates. Ostrov abused her power and violated party rules, by unacceptably ramming through the Ostrov rewrite with zero debate, zero discussion, and zero adherence to either her promise or party rules. This woman simply cannot be believed.

 PROMISE #5: Published Calendar of Party Meetings

The Verdict? -- Broken. Sorry, Shirlene. You simply haven't done this. The party website and communications are a total embarrassment. The lack of a calendar is just another glaring black hole in a sea of nothingness. Perhaps the problem is that you are out-of-town so often on non-party business like running your company on the mainland, unlike the "full-time party chair" you repeatedly promised to be. But even busy people use calendars so they don't miss meetings. And calendars are easy to publish in the 21st Century, if you've got nothing to hide and if the "tough work" is really being tackled. SPOILER ALERT: We already know the tough work needed to win elections is NOT being done.

 PROMISE #6: Ostrov and Her Running Mates Will Actually Do Their Jobs

The Verdict? -- Broken. Not one party officer that Ostrov ran with on her slate in 2017 has been succeeding in their jobs and Ostrov doesn't seem to care. Ostrov's Vice Chair for Coalitions is leaving our candidates empty-handed with no winning coalitions developed. Ostrov's low energy Vice Chair for Community Service has likewise left the public wondering if Republicans in Hawaii ever perform volunteer work at all. Jonathan Kunimura, Ostrov's Vice Chair for Communications, has arguably done more to help his pal Charles Djou to attack the Hawaii GOP upon renouncing his party membership than he's done to advance the cause of the state party after more than 13 months on the job. Ostrov's Vice Chair for Candidate Recruitment failed to find candidates for most races in 2018. There are more Democrats running unopposed for re-election than there are districts with Republican candidates. Worst of all, Ostrov's Vice Chair for Coordinated Campaigns is Pat Saiki. The coming political disaster in 2018 is primarily attributable to Ostrov and Saiki's gross negligence explained with the next broken promise.

 PROMISE #7: Ostrov says Party Rules will be Followed

The Verdict? -- Broken. Obviously, Ostrov was only kidding when she made this promise. Rulebreaking is rampant at party headquarters. Most notable is how Ostrov and her party officer running mates blatantly ignore their own explicit job descriptions which were written to make sure that party officers actually tried to win elections. One of the most crucial breakdowns is Ostrov's failure to perform the required duty of supervising (Section 406 of HRP Rules) the work of her Vice Chair for Coordinated Campaigns, Pat Saiki. And with Ostrov having promised to be a "full-time" state chair, she has no excuse for this breakdown in performance.

Under party rules (Section 407), Saiki is responsible for the Hawaii GOP's Voter Identification campaign (canvassing all 700,000 registered voters to see who the Republicans are), the Voter Registration campaign (signing up hundreds of thousands more potentially Republican voters), the Absentee Ballot program (getting folks to vote early and for Republicans), the Get-Out-The-Vote program (making sure all the identified Republicans actually cast ballots), and much more. NONE of this is happening. Pat Saiki isn't doing any of this. And Shirlene Ostrov knows it. At a recent meeting of the party's State Committee, a chilling report was given that revealed how a total of ZERO voters out of 700,000 had been canvassed under Saiki and Ostrov in order to identify their political leanings (so that candidates know who to focus their campaigns on -AND- so that the Get-Out-The-Vote effort in October and November only encourages Republican-leaning voters in each race to cast ballots). This gross negligence by Saiki and Ostrov is a scary situation which completely blows up Ostrov's pretense of being a 'military commander campaigning against Democrats'. Let's be honest. Without this important work being done, the Hawaii GOP is in a war with no weapons, no ammunition, no supplies, and no idea where the enemy is located. In 2018, Hawaii Republicans are sitting ducks with idiots for generals. Long story short, the party and its 'thrown-to-the-wolves' candidates have no way to make sure that Republican-leaning voters actually turn out to vote in 2018 because Shirlene Ostrov, Pat Saiki and the rest of Ostrov's RINO running mates refused to do the work needed to win.

 PROMISE #8: Ostrov says Party Will Take on the Democrats

2018 CAMPAIGN UPDATE PARTY-BUILDING VETOED BY CAMPAIGN COORDINATOR

During this past weekend's costly training and presentation on 'How To Start Winning' by mainland RNC trainers:

"We will also begin to define our contrast to the Democrats in clear and simple terms . . . We will articulate a message that covers the values and issues most people in our state care about and that the opposition isn't even paying attention to . . . I want to see the party hire a full-time communications director, someone who can help us shape a strategic message and plant it all over the state so our people in every precinct and district have a ready-made stage they can use to articulate Republican solutions at their very grassroots level."

The Verdict? -- Broken. Since absolutely no 'strategic messages' have been 'planted all over the state', the average Hawaii voter has been given no idea why they should vote any differently than they have in years gone by. Perhaps Ostrov means to start doing this AFTER the 2018 election? Because there's no 'contrast', there's no 'message', there's no 'communication', there's no 'values and issues'. Just total silence which sets up our candidates for failure and which emboldens the state legislature and county councils to continue ignoring conservative reforms and solutions while continuing to move leftward with each new law, budget, and tax passed.

In closing, it's a terrible thing knowing that our state party is still controlled by closet Democrats who systematically engineer the weakening of the Republican Party. What this means is that Hawaii's Democrats face no real challenge every two years, just an illusory one. Even potential GOP candidates know this as they decline to run for office. As the Honolulu Star-Advertiser recently noted, "With each passing election cycle the state has become, increasingly, a Democratic Party stronghold, with the isle Republicans fielding fewer candidates."

Sadly, Shirlene Ostrov's promises aren't worth jack squat. Call it malfeasance, misfeasance or nonfeasance, the job simply isn't getting done by the state chair and her do-nothing posse elected last year at the Kauai state convention. They promised to make everything better. They promised "historic gains" in 2018. Even the local news media can see we're on the verge of a historic trainwreck. You can draw a straight line from Ostrov's broken promises to the the widely-reported "collapse" of the Isle GOP which will culminate in historic losses on November 6th.

As Star-Advertiser columnist David Shapiro laments, "With each election cycle, it becomes more difficult to take Hawaii Republicans seriously as a major political party." And this joke of a party was made possible by a succession of RINO's and closet Democrats like Shirlene Ostrov whose idea of 'leadership' is to tell party members what they want to hear in order to win top officer positions at state conventions, then merely sit back and let Democrats win.

The next opportunity to break this vicious cycle through new party leadership comes in 2019 after another two wasted years. Until then, HIRA urges you to help conservative candidates in 2018 all you can. Beware of the RINO's on the ballot (and there are several) who make no bones about the fact that positions on issues and political principles and ideology don't matter much to them - just getting into office and getting along with Democrats. Sorry, we've had enough of closet Democrats after enduring Beth Fukumoto, Andria Tupola, Aaron Johanson, Kym Pine, Cynthia Thielen, Lauren Cheape, Bob "Rail Tax" McDermott, and Gene Ward without electing Fukumoto's clone to replace her in office. Auwe to that!

Isle GOP's collapse makes primary critical

By Kevin Dayton
kdayton@staradvertiser.com

In a state where one party dominates as much as the Democrats do in Hawaii, the next 67 days of campaigning leading up to the primary will decide just about everything. Political observers say the collapse of the Hawaii Republican Party and changes in the structure of elections in Hawaii have made the Aug. 11 primary election increasingly important even as voter participation in primaries has continued to decline. Tuesday was the deadline for almost all candidates to file to run for office, and the Democrats have such an overwhelming advantage here that the Republicans could not even manage to field candidates in 23 of 51 state House seats. The GOP was also unable to put up candidates for eight of 12 state Senate seats by the Tuesday filing deadline. The deadline for a 13th Senate seat has been extended until June 22. Fifteen Democrats in the House and one in the Senate have no opposition this year, including House Speaker Scott Saiki (D, Downtown Kakaako-Mo'iliili), House Finance Committee Chairwoman Sylvia Luke (D, Punchbowl-Paia-Na'anuu) and House Majority Leader Della Au Belatti (D, Moiliili-Makiki-Tantalus). Poor, poor Jane. Either Alzheimer's is a cruel disease which causes people like Jane to confuse people with other people, or Andre's wife is an even bigger bonehead than I thought.

The name is ERIC RYAN. Let me spell it for you, Jane: E-R-I-C R-Y-A-N. And, no, I'm not a state legislator who is breaking the rules by helping Joe Souki to become house speaker. Those names are B-E-T-H and A-A-R-O-N and G-E-N-E. And in case you're confused (or your nurse hasn't reminded you this morning), your name is J-A-N-E. Good morning, Jane. Are you ready to take your medications today?

By the way, YES JANE, you are a full-blown RINO with an inflated sense of yourself. Otherwise, you wouldn't sit back with 'golden silence' while the party does nothing to take on the Democrats when all the issues are on our side. In fact, while Democrats should have been losing sleep in 2018 thanks to all the horrible headlines and statistics reflective of how bad things have gotten, these same Democrats have never slept better than they do right now. Nobody at the water cooler is saying, "Hey, I think I'm going to vote Republican this year. Damn, those Democrats have really fucked things up." Nope, the Hawaii GOP refused to engage over any issues or pick any fights or elevate the battle for Hawaii's future in the 13 long months since Miriam and Pat's Puppet Fritz got replaced by their latest Puppet Shirlene. So, the public has no reason to give GOP candidates the time of day.

The main reason can sleep so soundly? People like you, Jane "Who am I again?" Tatibouet and Shirlene "Deer in the headlights" Ostrov, who are utterly clueless about the train which is about to run over them. Read the party rules. HIRA is 100% right. You guys are NOT doing your jobs and all of those promises have been broken. Ostrov, Saiki, Tatibouet, Blackburn, Songsong, Kunimura, Sora, etc. A fish rots from the head down. Sadly, miserable party leaders like you have thrown candidates to the wolves in 2018 without setting the stage for them by creating a contrast with the party in power – just one of the MANY broken Ostrov promises documented by HIRA.

[At this point, Jane's nurse needs to wake her up, change her adult diaper, and wipe away the drool.]

Personally, I don't have a key to party headquarters. So, I don't know why you keep calling me "Brett". So, I'm not sure what you were babbling about at 1:04am this morning or how much cognac you were mixing with your prescriptions. But I know from reading my e-mails from HRP that your boss Ostrov and some overpaid hack named Aaron Wilson announced a big canvassing effort – a DAY OF ACTION – which probably flopped and came 13 months too late. Listen, Jane, I didn't send out those big announcement e-mails. I wasn't the person in charge. So it's not MY project, dumb ass. If you have a problem, talk to world traveler and "full-time chair" Ostrov and Philly Boy. Looks like they totally dropped the ball and forgot to open HQ, based on your true confessions. My best guess about the fuckup is that Shirlene and Aaron got tired of reading how HIRA was mocking them for being useless and they set this stupid "day of action" initiative in motion with no planning in hopes of saving face. Now, if you expected me to break into that morgue at 725 Kapiolani (the one laughingly referred to as "headquarters") in order to pull Shirlene and Aaron's oversized asses out of the fire, you're fucking kidding yourself beeyatch. Remember, only a few weeks ago, you worked yourself up into a lather (foaming at the mouth and wild-eyed) to tell the State Committee I shouldn't be a party member anymore because I was using my job as a legislator at the State Capitol to keep Cynthia Thielen from becoming Majority Leader under the rule you cited.

Someone with a CV like yours should know that you can't make up for 13 months of neglect in a single weekend. Your gal pals Pat "I used to be SBA administrator" Saiki and Shirlene "I've never even been a precinct president before" Ostrov should have started the Voter ID effort more than a year ago. Pop I.Q. Question for Jane: How can a person eat a whole elephant? Answer: One bite at a time. Yes, that's why you need to start canvassing 700,000 voters prior to mid-June in an election year. That was Pat's job. And it was Shirlene's job to make sure Pat did her job. So when Pat told the State Committee (don't make me play you the audio, though I happily will) last year that she 'really had nothing to do' until after the June 2018 candidate filing deadline, that precise moment (which went unchallenged by Shirlene and her other cronies) was THE BEGINNING OF THE END OF THE 2018 CAMPAIGN. Somehow, I get the feeling you partied a lot in college and paid others to write your research papers because you didn't start working on them until the night before these were due.

But how can I even explain such simple things to the village idiot who can't even get names straight? Lady, just stay off the sauce, for the sake of that baby you're carrying. You looked about five or six months along at last month's state convention. Congrats to you and Andre, by the way. When he's born, please don't name him Eric or make him clean hotel rooms to "learn the business". Oh, yeah, one last thought. After the coming 2018 disaster, WHY would any candidates even want to run on the Hawaii GOP label if you and your RINO buddies are still in charge? That doesn't pass the I.Q. test or the smell test. You really should have stopped at "Silence is Golden". It's no wonder that Democrats hold 115 of the 120 elected seats in Hawaii.

Yours truly, ERIC RYAN (spelled E-R-I-C R-Y-A-N)

NOT a State Legislator. Just another supremely disappointed Republican in Hawaii.

Jane,

Are you confusing Brett Kulbis & Eric Ryan?

Aloha Brett et al,

In Re: SUBJECT: Hawaii GOP in Trouble:
The Many Broken Promises of Shirlene Ostrov

Promise #1:

From: Jane Tatibouet, HawaiiHoteliers@aol.com

Silence is Golden but there is a time and a place for corrections to be made and Brett it appears that you have now stepped over the boundary without actually checking your facts.

FACT #1, Regarding our 2018 Cohort of Candidates: First I will say that no one has ever promised any definitive number of anticipated wins. Additionally no one, not myself ever, nor anyone I have heard, until you wrote it today, has referred Republican Party election seat counts to win or won (in previous years) as by "new candidates."

If ever there is mentioned a detail, I have always referred to our candidates numbers as 'including our incumbents.'

Furthermore, No seat count years ago was ever stated as NEW and then adding the OLD to that!

Every count, every time has always INCLUDED ALL INCUMBENTS. That is honest expression and honest, accurate reporting.

Doing otherwise would be both erroneous and misleading and believe me I do not ever intend to make such statements.

FACT #2. Regarding the Elections of 1994, 1996 and 1998 Republicans: You either have depended on someone else's incomplete research or you have just ignored the facts. To ease your research time I am attaching the article by former Star-Bulletin Editor, A.A. (Bud) Smyser that appeared on Thursday, May 15, 1997. My statement at that time of my goal to elect at least 17 to the State House in the 1998 election was inclusive of any incumbents, since a magic number of seats in the legislature at that time was 17. With 17 votes, Republicans could pull bills out of committee rather have them die for lack of the partisan votes necessary, as I had personally experienced earlier, when serving in the State House of Representatives.. So you see, 17 was always my goal, wherever and whenever the press spoke and while my 17, always included the incumbents, the press at times may have stated it otherwise.

After completing my 2 1/2 terms as Republican Party Chair I resigned in May of 1997, as our son has started a very labor intensive business a few months earlier in Massachusetts and needed my help. However, I did recruit most of that 1998 Cohort of Candidates and trained them thoroughly so that, in the end, 19 of my Candidates were actually elected. Again please check the records. And, just by the way, it was 'historic' as it was one of the first times since Statehood that there were 19 Republicans in the State House, several in the State Senate as well as scattered throughout the, then-partisan, County Councils and County Mayors. Bud Smyser lists it all very carefully.

NOTE: FACTS #3- #6 are not related to Promise #1 but are more general in nature.

FACT #3. Just for the records, would you please cease calling me a RINO. I have been a solid, conservative Republican my entire life.

I grew up in a small town in Massachusetts and registered to vote there as a Republican, understanding then, what being a conservative Republican meant and believed in - as I do to this day. I was elected in Hawaii, based upon my beliefs, which have never wavered.

I was very active as a Young Republican at Cornell University and here in Hawaii during my first years here. It was then a very large and active organization with conventions every other year on the Outer Islands. Yes, I am speaking here about the YRs! My husband Andre, also a life-long Republican was State Chairman of the YR's after we were married. During the Vietnam War, I was President of the Freedom's Foundation at Valley Forge, Hawaii Chapter, a largely Republican group with its roots and administrative office in Valley Forge, Virginia.

FACT #4 . Just for the records, I am attaching my resume/curriculum vitae, so that you might become more familiar with my leadership abilities.

FACT #5. Just for your edification, after many years of observing our Hawaii Republican Party merely filing for seats with unknowns and or lightweight candidates, using sheer numbers as their criteria, I made the decision to only focus on candidates who could potentially win.

I personally spent many days and hours attempting to recruit potential candidates many of whom were not able to come aboard this year, however, we do have a growing bench for next years training which can begin in 2019.

Out of all who filed for seats as a Republican, and I was personally in touch with every one of them, most of them several times (except those from the last days).

Not all were qualified or chose not to participate in the extensive training we conducted. The solid, leading candidates showed consistent progress and enthusiasm in a variety of ways. These are our now final Leading Candidates, an intentional effort not to have numbers but real, proven quality persons, with the ability to do the job. Additionally, there are some persons whom, on their own, might be leading candidates but they chose to not participate.

Obviously, our 2018 Cohort are outstanding and furthermore, well suited to the demography of their unique districts. They are of multiple nationalities, Hawaiian, Japanese, Filipino, Portuguese, Korean, Chinese, Samoan and a variety of European - American stock. I will continue training them throughout the summer and fall, keeping them updated on issues and continuing to do presentations for them with guest speakers from time to time. That said, we want them out on the streets, going door to door, whenever possible, to both GOTV and to get it for themselves!

FACT # 6. In conclusion, I am aware, Brett, that many people would be extremely interested in seeing your Resume - Curriculum Vitae, so that they may better grasp the logic that you bring to the comments which you make about myself and others who are working so hard to bring the party back on its feet after years of neglect. Please share your extensive qualifications, leadership roles, major fund raising, etc. with particular emphasis on your civic leadership roles as well as business leadership roles and the business acumen that accompanies same.

SUBFACT #6.

Since you are the Oahu District Chair I do not understand why your own Districts Chairs and volunteers produced no results on Saturday?

Please explain - as you oversee the largest contingent in the party. BTW - one of my best Candidates dutifully came to the office on Saturday to give material in and found it all locked up and no one there! Where was your Leadership this past Weekend? You certainly never called me and explained how I might include the Candidates and use their volunteers to assist the regular party folks. Is this your idea of Leadership?

Please acknowledge receipt of this message of corrections as well as my attachments.

Yours in the GOP, Jane
